L3/L4 American History Field Trip

Friday, January 29
Meet at CrossRoads at 9:15am
Return to CrossRoads around 4:00pm (we’ll call when we are leaving Roswell)
Cost: $18/student, $21/adult

We will tour three stunning antebellum homes in historic Roswell; the Smith Plantation, Bulloch Hall, and Barrington Hall, and we will eat lunch at Vickery Creek where we will explore the old cotton mill ruins which was burned by the Union Army during the Civil War. During the tours we will learn about antebellum life, the founding and history of Roswell, the Civil War in the area, and the Lost Mill Workers of Roswell.

RSVP is required to Lisa Toney (ltoney@netpti.com) no later than Monday, January 25. We must give the historic society our attendance number on Monday, so we must have an accurate and final count by 1/25.

Please bring cash on the day of the field trip (exact change), along with your permission slip.

We need some parents to drive and spend the day with us, please! If everyone in the L3 & L4 classes attends, we can have as many as 25 or so kids going which will require several vehicles to transport them. Please let us know as soon as possible if you can help.

Please note: This field trip is only for L3 & L4 students (class alumni are welcome, as always).

Bulloch Hall and Barrington Hall each have a small gift shop, and students are welcome to bring some spending money if desired.
